

The Gender Gap in the 2024 Election

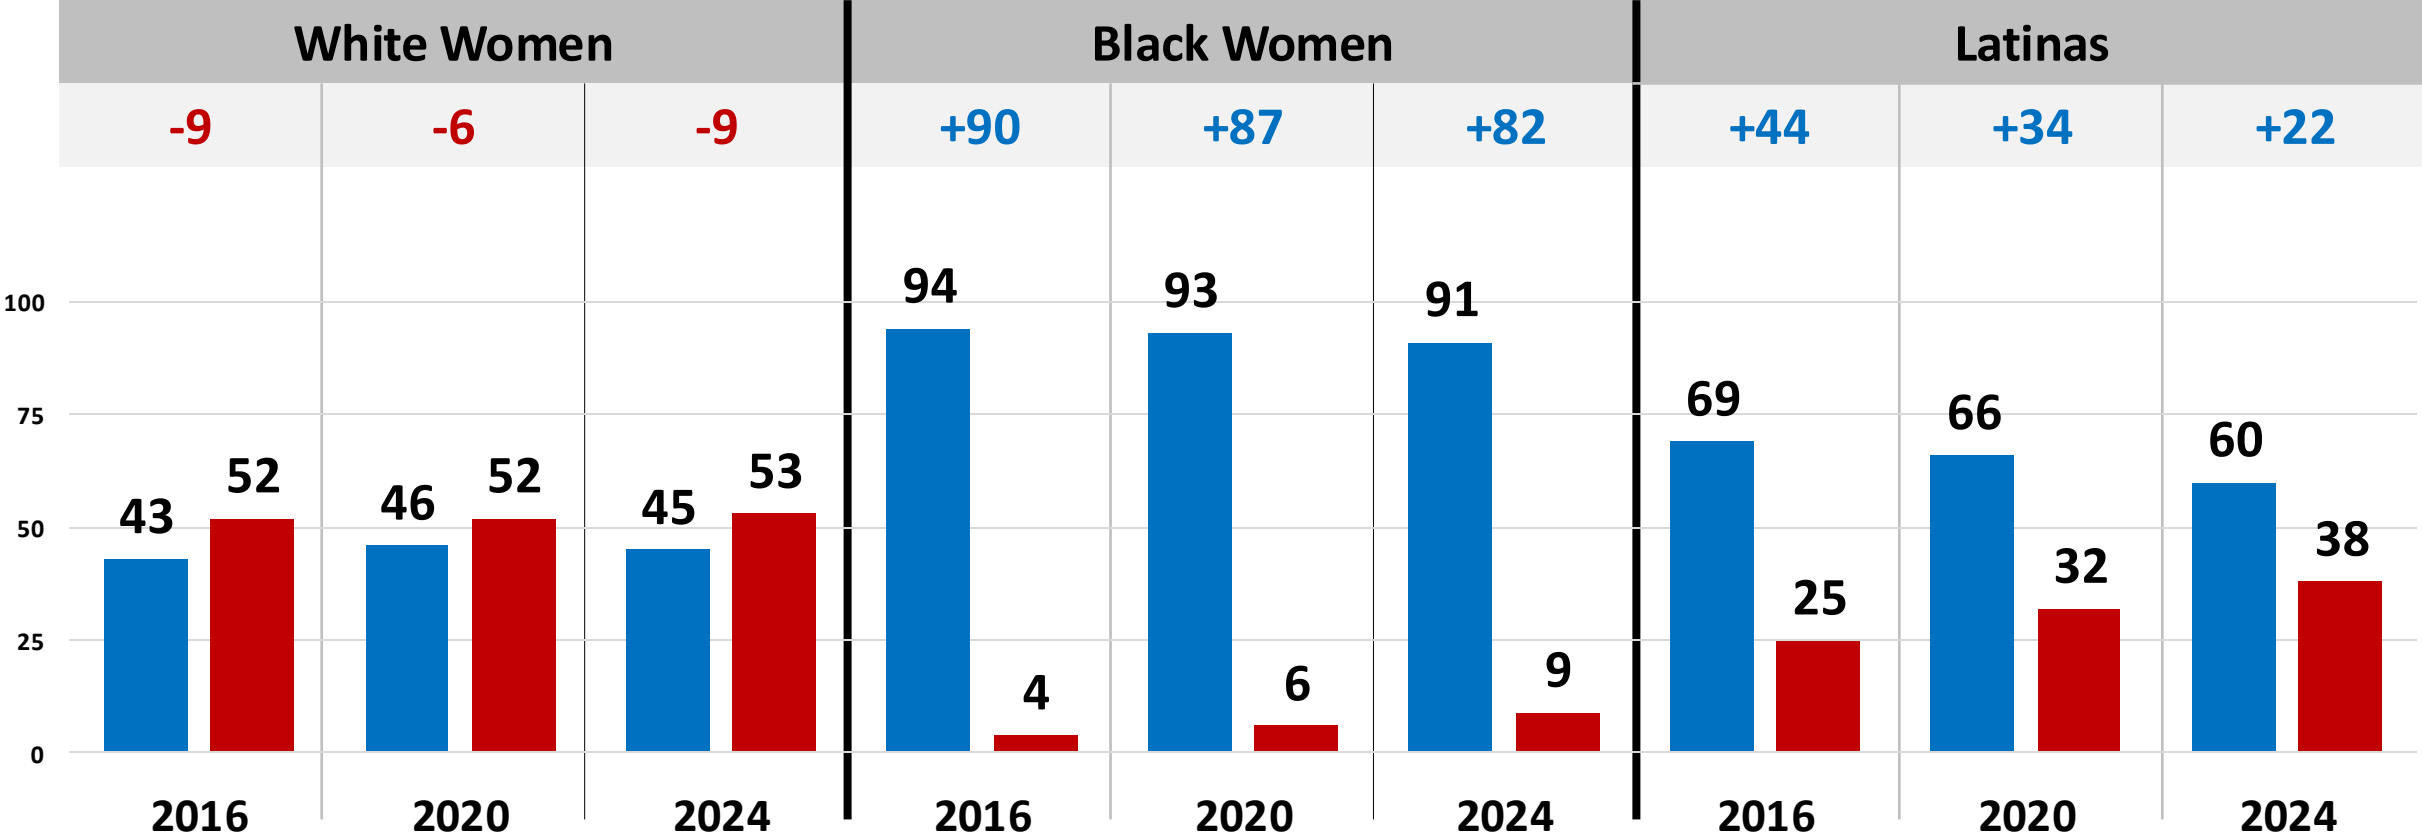

Support for Harris by gender shows a 21-point gender gap. Trump won men by a larger margin than Harris won women.

The gender gap obscures big differences by race. White women continued to vote for Trump.

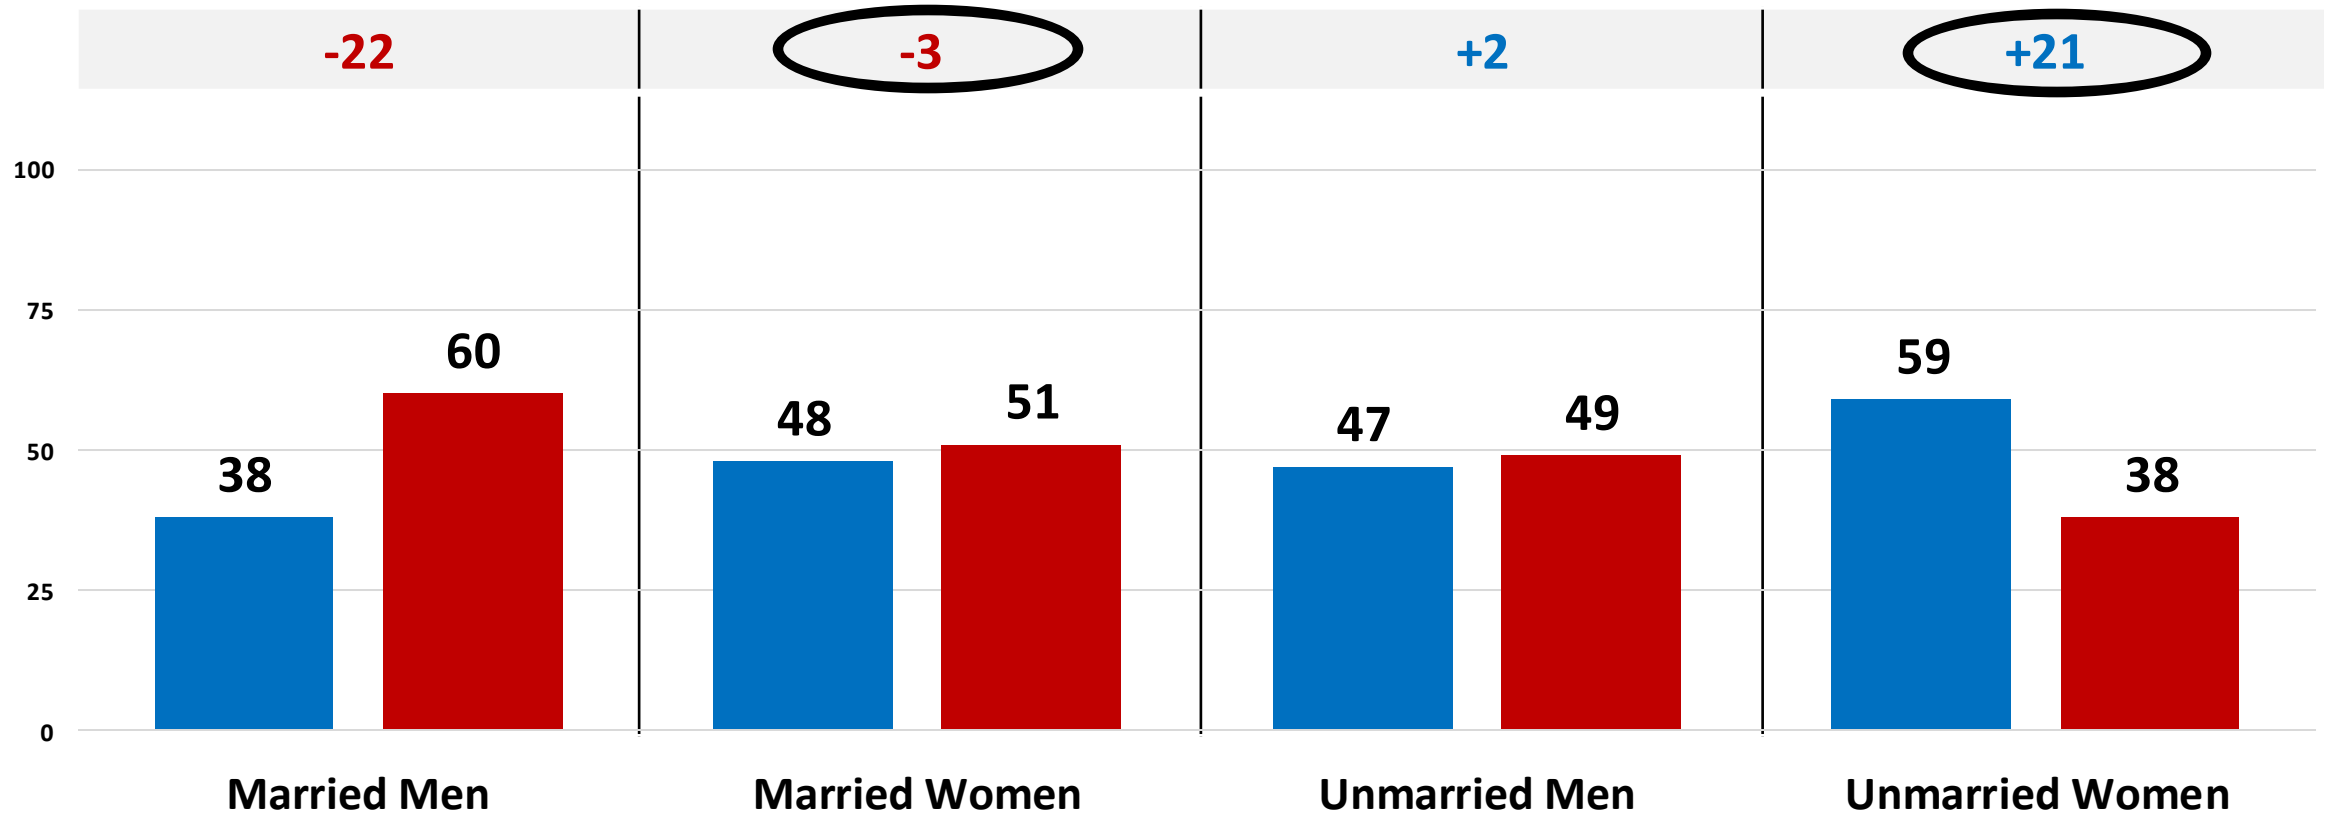

Gender by Race and Ethnicity: 2016 to 2024

<https://www.cnn.com/election/2024/exit-polls/national-results/general/president/0>
<https://www.foxnews.com/elections/2020/general-results/voter-analysis>
<https://www.cnn.com/election/2016/results/exit-polls>

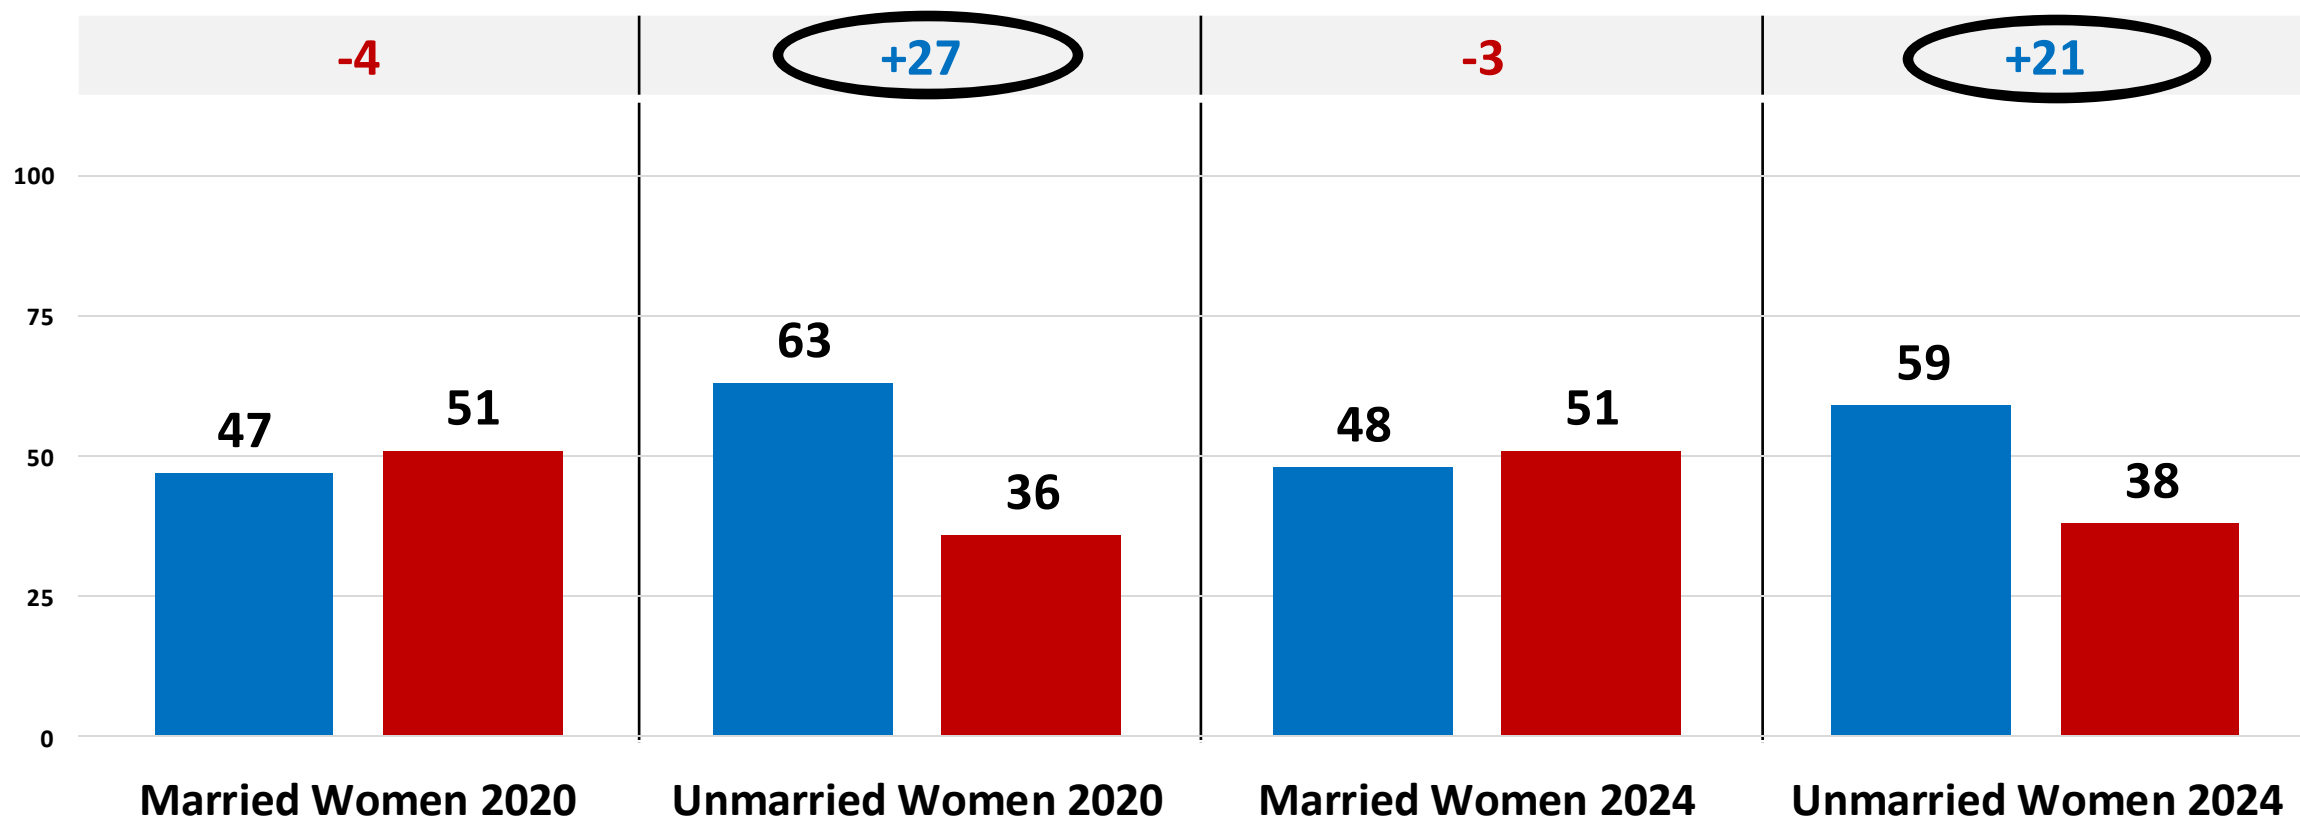

Married voters supported Trump at higher rates than unmarried voters, who voted for Harris. Married women broke narrowly for Trump, compared to unmarried women who supported Harris by 21 points.

Marital Status by Gender

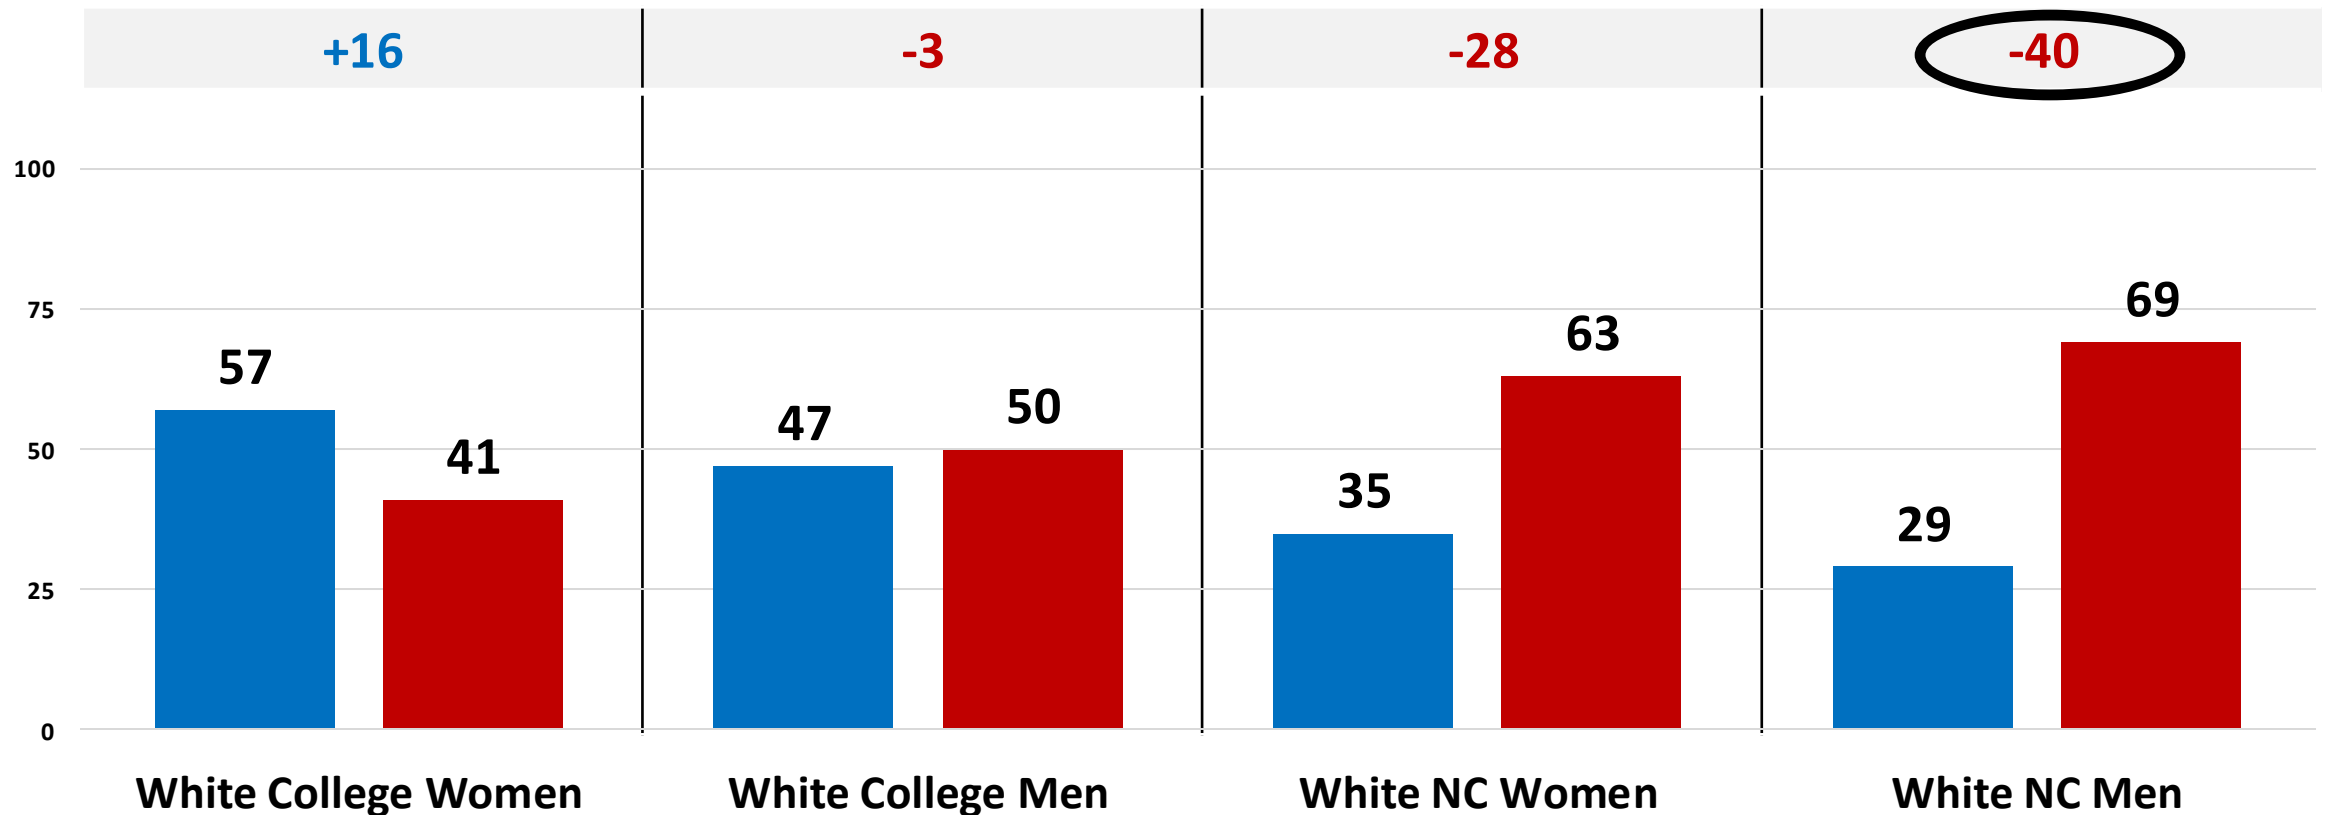

Married women supported Trump at higher rates than unmarried women, who voted for Biden or Harris in both 2020 and 2024. Married women broke narrowly for Trump in 2024, compared to unmarried women who supported Harris by 21 points.

Marital Status by Gender: 2020 to 2024

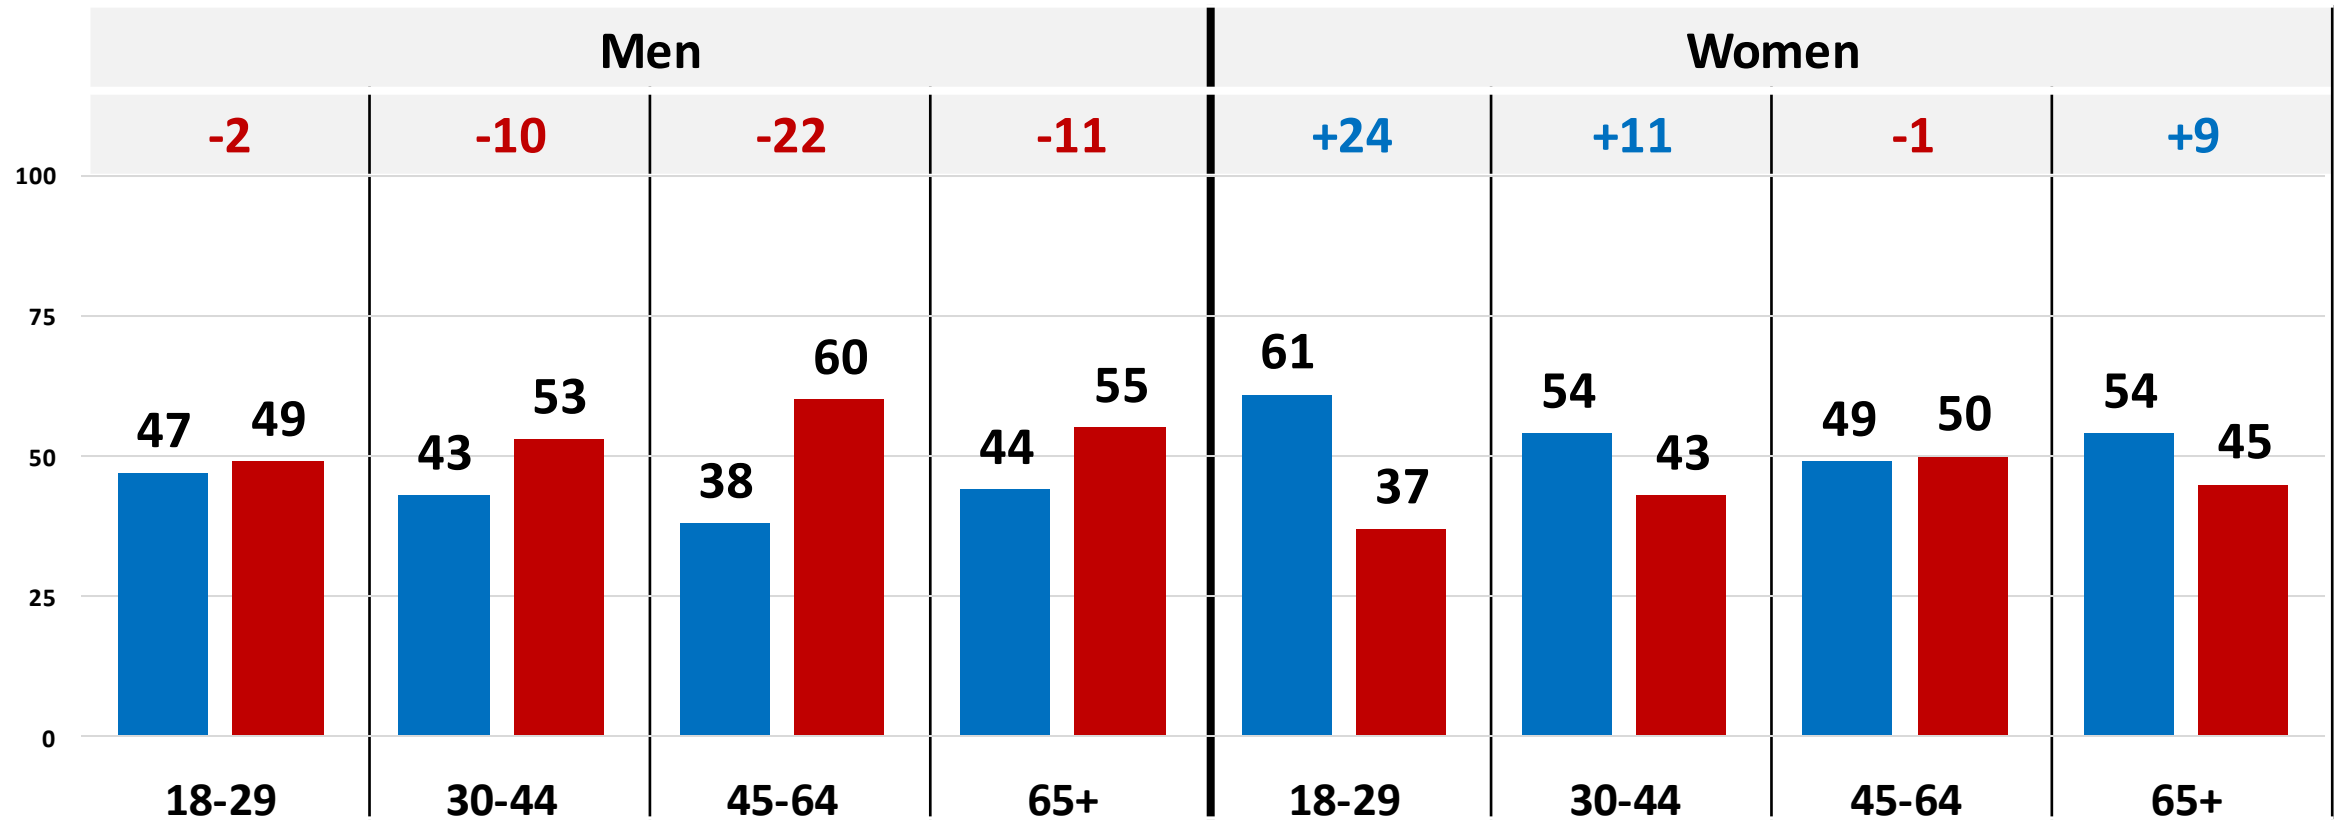

White voters divide by education. Non-college voters supported Trump by large margins, while college-educated white men divided more evenly. The gender gap for Trump voters was smaller amongst non-college voters.

White by Gender and Educational Attainment

Harris's support among voters under 30 was driven by young women.

Age by Gender

Support for Harris by gender shows an 8-point gender gap in Arizona. Trump won both men and women.

